COMPETITIVE BALLOT OFFER BEGINS TODAY

Excellent Opportunity for Candidates to Get Many Extra Votes Until November 8.

Special Notice to Candidates.

All candidates are hereby notified that the ballots in their possession with the seven day time limit printed thereon will be due on Saturday, November 11 and must be voted not later than that day. The ballots to be voted on November 11 have printed in the lower right hand corner the following: "This Ballot must be voted 7 days before the close of the contest." Only ballots so marked must be voted at the time stated. The others in your possession can be held until the last day of the contest, Saturday, November 18.

BY T. K. GREER.

For a period of seven days starting today and continuing until Wednesday evening, November 8, at 8:30 o'clock the Contest Department will conduct a competitive ballot offer by which a 200,000 extra vote ballot, together with nineteen other special ballots will be given candidates who turn in the largest number of yearly subscriptions, old or new, to the Republican. This is an excellent opportunity for those who are down in the list to make a big gain. All told twenty ballots will be issued and that will mean that almost every candidate will receive one of the ballots. Which one they will get however is up to them, all depending on the number of subscriptions they secure during this period.

HOW THE BALLOTS WILL BE AWARDED.

The first ballot will be good for 200,000 votes and will be given the candidate who turns in the largest number of yearly subscriptions; the next ballot will be good for 190,000 votes and will be given the candidate who turns in the next largest number of subscriptions, while the third will be good for 180,000 votes, and the fourth, fifth and so on down will decrease 10,000 votes until the entire twenty are awarded. Subscriptions for over the year will also figure in this offer.

THE BALLOTS.

First Ballot	200,000
Second Ballot	190,000
Third Ballot	180,000
Fourth Ballot	170,000
Fifth Ballot	160,000
Sixth Ballot	150,000
Seventh Ballot	140,000
Eighth Ballot	130,000
Ninth Ballot	120,000
Tenth Ballot	110,000
Eleventh Ballot	100,000
Twelfth Ballot	90,000
Thirteenth Ballot	80,000
Fourteenth Ballot	70,000
Fifteenth Ballot	60,000
Sixteenth Ballot	50,000
Seventeenth Ballot	40,000
Eighteenth Ballot	30,000
Nineteenth Ballot	20,000
Twentieth Ballot	10,000

HOW THE UNEXPECTED HAPPENS.

An example of unexpectedness which may be applied to this contest as well as any other undertaking is the notable football victory of State College over the University of Pennsylvania. Year after year the State boys have been going to Philadelphia to play Penn and year after year they have met defeat. Were they discouraged? Not on your life. They did not let their enthusiasm waver in the least but kept plugging along and the result was shown in the victory which is regarded as the greatest achievement of old State on the football field. It is the never-say-die spirit that brings victory and the candidate in this contest who cannot be scared but keeps on working and is determined that if defeat must come it will be in such a way that they can think: "Anyway, I fought a good fight." Keep up your enthusiasm and don't let rumors influence you one way or the other.

OFFER FAIR TO ALL.

This offer applies to both old and new subscriptions.

These ballots will be awarded regardless of districts. The prevailing scale of votes will be issued on each subscription turned in during this offer and these special or competitive ballots will be issued in addition.

This offer is as fair to one as it is to another. It is different from any other and can in no way to be compared with them. This offer means that ALL MUST WORK DURING THE NEXT WEEK to determine how large your ballot will be. In fact in a contest of any kind it is necessary for those who expect to win to "KEEP EVERLASTINGLY AT IT." This means that somebody behind you may regain their lost ground by jumping into the fight hard this week and win one of the big ballots, and place themselves among the leaders.

In fact this offer can not be overlooked by any of the candidates. If you are standing high in the contest and you have a bunch of votes in reserve you should bear in mind that you cannot afford to let some weaker candidate win this 200,000 ballot or one of the other big ballots. You not only lose the special ballot, but your competitor has gained not only the special ballot over you, but the regular votes as well. If you expect to win in this contest you must WORK EVERY DAY FROM NOW UNTIL THE END OF THE CONTEST. By this it is meant that you must take up all of your spare time in the interest of the contest.

"WHERE THERE'S A WILL THERE'S A WAY."

Everybody has heard that old saying, "Where there's a will there's a way." The candidates who mean to win the automobile and other prizes offered by The Republican not only realize the truth thereof, but are putting it in practice, and any contestant who will take the full meaning of the precept and will act on it cannot help but win.

After this contest is over there will be the usual number of "I told you so." It is always easy to tell the result of any election after it is over, to explain why so and so was defeated. See to it that you will have nothing of this kind to reproach yourself with at the finish. Put forth every endeavor, tell your friends how much the auto will mean to you, and what a bitter disappointment its loss will be—and don't overlook the special 200,000 ballot competition which ends Wednesday night at 8:30 o'clock.

DONT OVERLOOK ANYONE.

A number of subscriptions are being overlooked each day because the candidates show timidity in approaching some men by reason of their standing in business circles. Your request for the subscription will be met with courtesy, at least. In the majority of cases the persons you approach will gladly help you and they may become so interested in your campaign that they will suggest places where other subscriptions may be secured. Do not be discouraged because

For the Honor of Centre County!

On Tuesday, next, you and other citizens of Centre County will decide at the polls whether or not the stamp of approval shall be placed upon a progressive administration of our county affairs. Your ballot will be your expression of opinion on the subject. By your vote you will say whether we are to have public improvements when public improvements are needed in the future or whether all progress is to be halted for years to come because of fear upon the part of county officials that they will not be upheld by the people when they do their duty. This is the true situation confronting you and every other citizen of Centre County on the eve of the election. It is a situation in which you are called upon to take your stand for or against progressive citizenship.

Where do you stand?

Since the opening of the campaign maliciously misleading statements have been published in the Democratic newspapers for the sole purpose of confusing the people. What all may see is a splendidly repaired Court House has been disgracefully dragged into politics. It has been used as a basis for deliberate and wilful misrepresentation for the one purpose of defeating Messrs. Zimmerman and Woodring, who instead of being attacked deserve universal praise and commendation for what they have done. They as public officials have performed a splendid service to the people. Their work stands out as the most progressive step taken by any public officials in Centre County in a generation. Their re-election on Tuesday will be the voice of the people speaking out in approval of not only a duty well and honestly done but of the spirit of progress in public affairs as well as in private affairs. Their defeat would stand out as an insult to the intelligence of the people and would stain the fair name of Centre County in all parts of the State and for all time to come.

Every intelligent citizen wants to do what is in his judgment right and for the best. Every citizen should want to see public affairs handled in the same progressive spirit which he applies to his private affairs. The Court House is public property. It belongs to you and other citizens of Centre County. You necessarily are concerned as to how public property is managed.

If you employ a man to manage your property you naturally expect him to repair it when repairs are required to preserve its value. This protects you against loss. If he neglected doing so you would quickly dispose of his services and employ somebody who would take care of your interests for you. Of course you would. So would any other intelligent, well-meaning citizen. Now, how about the men you employ to manage your public affairs? Should not the same principle apply? If your public officials neglect your property and allow it to depreciate in value, you of course do not want them continued as your representatives. You naturally want to get rid of them. But when you happen to employ public officials who do their duty and look out for your interests by repairing and preserving your property, as Messrs. Zimmerman and Woodring have done, then what are you going to do with them? Are you going to reward them by voting to keep them in your employ, or are you going to rebuke them because they were faithful to you? If you apply to public affairs the same business principles you follow in private affairs, you owe it to yourself to vote for Zimmerman and Woodring on Tuesday. If you believe in progressive citizenship you will not only vote for them but you will urge others to vote for them. If these two honest, progressive officials are defeated the shame will not be upon their heads but it will rest upon the head of every man who helped to make defeat possible.

The intelligence, the honor of Centre County, is on trial.

Where do you stand?

To The Public:

Information has just reached us of a story circulated to the effect that we, as the majority members of the present Board of County Commissioners, contemplate, if re-elected, the remodeling of the Centre County Jail. Why such a story should be given recognition we do not understand as we never contemplated such a move.

In the spring of 1909 the conditions in this building were such that immediate repairs were necessary. The closets in the upper cells leaked and every time a flush was used its contents would run down into the cells below, rendering them not only unsanitary but filthy to a revolting degree. This was corrected by re-plumbing the entire building and so far as can be seen it will need none but minor repairs for the next fifty years. Nor have we at any time contemplated making further improvements, to say nothing of remodeling it as is reported.

The same may be said of the report of our intention to beautify the lawn between the Court House and Jail and throw it into a park.

As these stories are circulated for political effect we ask the people of Centre County to pass them by as the deliberate falsehoods which they are, pledging our word that if re-elected we will carry out the obligations embraced in this statement.

Respectfully,

JACOB WOODRING.

H. E. ZIMMERMAN.

Remember 1912.

Every Republican in Centre County should keep in mind that the battle at the polls on Tuesday is but preliminary to the great national campaign next year. Republican victory in Centre County on Tuesday makes doubly certain Republican victory in the Presidential campaign. Republican defeat now would be the forerunner to Democratic victory in 1912 and the election of a free trade Democratic President.

HASTINGS HOME ROBBED

Thieves Get Away With Mrs. Hastings' Watch and D. A. R. Pin.

Thieves on Sunday night, last, broke into the home of Mrs. D. H. Hastings and after ransacking the place made away with her watch and a Daughters of the American Revolution pin. Mrs. Hastings, who departed yesterday for Harrisburg, preliminary to going abroad this month, was not in the house at the time of the robbery. Thus far the thieves have not been apprehended.

An entrance to the house was effected by breaking through a rear door, the thieves using a pick to break through. Apparently the thieves were only after money or jewelry, for while they visited all parts of the house and pried open a writing desk silverware was overlooked and other articles of value left untouched.

Betting Favors Republicans.

Such betting on the election as has been done in the last two days has favored the Republicans, the odds being two to one on the election of the entire Republican ticket. Unbiased Democrats concede that the Democratic ticket is in a demoralized condition and have no hopes for success at the polls on Tuesday. They predict that the principal fight will will be that between Noll and Grove, Democrats, for election as the minority member of the Board of Commissioners. In the last week Grove has been gaining in strength and his friends predict that he will lead Noll three to two in the county outside of Bellefonte. To save Noll the Democratic bosses have issued orders to knife Grove wherever possible. In line with this they are working to trade Grove for votes for Lee for Sheriff.

VOTE IT STRAIGHT

REPUBLICAN	X
INDEPENDENT

Election Tuesday, Nov. 7. Polls open from 7 a. m. to 7 p. m. Don't forget to vote early.

A word or two or explanation as to how to mark your ballot next Tuesday may be of some befit to some voters, who for one reason or another do not have the time to give the matter much close study before going to the polls.

The first column on the ballot is devoted, as usual, to the several party squares for straight-ticket voting. A cross marked in the Republican square in this column will mean a vote for each of the Republican candidates on the ballot. Likewise a cross in the Democratic square will mean a vote for each Democratic candidate on the ballot. A cross in the Independent square will mean a vote for the one candidate only of that party.

If you make a cross in the Republican square in the first column, do not make a cross opposite the name of any candidate or candidates appearing in the four other columns on the ballot. If you do you will destroy your ballot and your vote will be lost.

Many persons enter the voting booth and attempt to vote a mixed ticket without clearly understanding how to mark their ballot. As a result in not a few instances they destroy their ballot, their vote is thereby lost and they fail to help the candidates they wished to favor. The surest and safest way to mark you ballot so that it cannot be thrown out as defective is to mark a cross in the Republican square in the first column.

At the bottom of the ballot will be found two proposed constitutional amendments. To vote for or against each amendment you must make a cross in the squares opposite the words "Yes" or "No" at the right hand side of the amendment. Proposed amendment No. 1 is to enable the city of Philadelphia to increase its borrowing capacity from seven to ten percent. to secure money for the building and developing of subways for transit purposes and also for the construction of wharves and docks along the river fronts in that city. Proposed amendment No. 2 provides for the consolidation of the courts of Allegheny County into one court of common pleas. The proposed consolidation is intended to facilitate a more speedy disposition of pending litigation in that county. Neither proposed amendment applies in any way to Centre County.

THE WINNING TICKET

Your Vote Will Aid in the Success of the Following Worthy Men.

Every candidate on the Republican ticket has proved himself to be honest, efficient and in every way worthy of your hearty support. The men who respectfully ask your support and who promise you a clean, honest and economical administration of the county affairs are:

For Sheriff,
GEORGE H. YARNELL.

For Treasurer,
JOSIAH PRITCHARD.

For Commissioners,
JACOB WOODRING
H. E. ZIMMERMAN.

For Recorder,
WILLIAM H. BROWN.

For District Attorney,
JAMES C. FURST.

For Prothonotary,
HARRY H. DIEHL.

For Register,
EDWARD J. WILLIAMS.

For County Auditors,
CLEMENT H. GRAMLEY
W. H. GOSS.

For County Surveyor,
DAVID W. PLETCHER.

Every man on the foregoing list stands squarely for progressive citizenship and for a square deal in administering your affairs. Every man won his nomination in a fair and square contest at the primaries. They have made a good, clean fight for victory on Tuesday and they look to you to do your part just as they would do their part for you were you on the ticket.

Coming attractions at Garman's Opera House are "His Honor the Mayor" and John W. Vogel's Minstrels. The dates have not been announced.

PRISON COMMISSION HERE NEXT WEDNESDAY

Wet Weather Upsets Proposed Visit Here Yesterday.

NO CHANGE IN PLANS

Rumor that McBride's Gap Site has been Dropped is Without Foundation—Option Finally Secured on Sinie Hoy's 100-Acre Tract.

Owing to the continued wet weather of the early part of the week, Warden John Francies and the commissioners of the western penitentiary did not come to Bellefonte yesterday as they had planned. Mr. Francies early in the day notified the local committee that the proposed visit had been postponed and that he and the commissioners would be here on Monday. Later in the day he notified the local committee that the visit would not be made until Wednesday of next week.

There have been all sorts of rumors in the last week regarding a change in the apparently decided plan to locate the new prison on the McBride's gap site. Upon the best authority obtainable it may be stated that there has been no change in the situation up to the present time.

The local committee yesterday succeeded in securing an option on 100 acres of land owned by Sinie Hoy on the McBride's gap site. More difficulty was encountered in securing this option than probably any other owing to the price demanded by Hoy for the land.

A. A. PLETCHER WEDS

Well Known Citizen of Howard Gives Friends a Pleasant Surprise.

A. A. Pletcher, a well known citizen of Howard, gave his numerous friends a pleasant surprise when he announced that he had been married on Thursday, October 26, his bride being Mrs. Cora Hayes Yearick, a daughter of James G. and Rachael McKibben Hayes, of Clintondale, Clinton County. So few persons were in the secret that the wedding ceremony had been performed and Mr. and Mrs. Pletcher were on their honeymoon tour to Washington, D. C., before the news leaked out.

Both of Mr. Pletcher's daughters have been married for three years past and since the death of his first wife one daughter, Mrs. Howard Robb, had been keeping house for him. Recently Mrs. Robb located in Lock Haven, being engaged at the State Normal School at that place. Mr. Pletcher was compelled to hire a housekeeper, Mrs. Longee. Concluding that the happiest way out of his predicament was to take unto himself a wife, Mr. Pletcher proceeded to do so and the wedding ceremony was performed on Thursday morning of last week, at 11 o'clock, in the Presbyterian parsonage at Mill Hall, the officiating minister being Rev. A. D. Bateman. After the wedding ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Pletcher went to Lock Haven and from there to Washington, where they are enjoying their honeymoon. They will return to Howard at the expiration of about ten days. Mrs. Pletcher is an excellent woman. She is well educated and is bright and refined and will make a cheerful companion for her husband through life's journey. She is a representative of two of the best known families in the valley and is well fitted to grace her new home. To Mr. and Mrs. Pletcher their numerous friends extend hearty congratulations and best wishes.

Are Violating the Law.

It is reported that in some parts of the county members of school boards are innocently or otherwise violating the law prohibiting school directors purchasing from themselves coal and other supplies. Supposedly, this violation is due to a lack of information in regard to the law. In one instance, it is reported, members of a school board made extensive repairs to the school building and then drew checks to their own favor for the work done. This, also, was done supposedly without intention of violating the law, but it nevertheless constitutes violation. The School Code provisions governing the purchase of supplies by school directors does not become operative until January, 1912. This also rigidly prohibits school directors selling supplies to themselves or charging themselves for work done on school buildings.

Hospital Notes.

Operations—Mrs. Nannie Beighdel, Bellefonte; Mrs. Julia Shope, Milesburg.

Admitted for treatment—Lillian Grassmeyer, Milesburg.

Discharged—Roy Adams, Unionville; Mrs. Marjorie Harding, Tyrone; Miss Mary Harding, Miss Julia Foreman, Bellefonte.

20 patients in the hospital.

PENNSYLVANIA DAY

Annual Event at State College to be Celebrated on November 17.

"Pennsylvania Day," always an event of espicial interest at State College and an occasion which attracts to that famous institution many notable and distinugished men from all parts of the State, will be celebrated on Friday, November 17. The honor guests will include Governor John K. Tener, who has signified his intention to be present. One of the principal speakers will be former Congressman James E. Watson, of Indiana.

Adjutant General Thomas J. Stewart will review the regiment of 1100 college cadets, and following an inspection of the buildings, laboratories, shops and campus there will be the annual football game between the Freshmen and Sophomore classes. Members of the various Fraternities invite all Pennsylvania Day guests to attend their house-party dances on the evening of Thursday, November 16. On that evening the Bellefonte Club will entertain guests arriving in Bellefonte during the afternoon and who are compelled to remain here over night. Persons desiring to accept the hospitality of the club are requested to notify the president, John Blanchard.

On the morning of November 17 a special train will leave Bellefonte for State College at 9.35, immediately after the arrival of trains from the east and west, and will return to Bellefonte in time to connect with the late afternoon trains.

Atlanta Gowns Shocking.

Declaring that the dresses worn in the streets by Atlanta women are "indecent" and "a disgrace to womanhood," the clubwomen and the preachers have begun a crusade for reform. Leading ministers say that Atlanta women wear dresses in the streets that in any other city in the South would mark them as women of the underworld.

The clubwomen joined the preachers and it was decided to launch a campaign to force women to cease wearing "indecent" dresses in the streets.

Miss Daisy Eckert, general secretary of the Young Women's Christian Association, said: "Conditions are worse in Atlanta than in other cities I have been in. I have been in New York and other large cities of the East and the West, and women dress more brazenly in Atlanta, than in those places. The way Atlanta girls and women dress would stamp them as denizens of the underworld in any other city."

Mrs. Laura White, a leading club woman, says: "It is disgusting the way Atlanta girls dress for the street. The fathers of these girls know exactly what the young men of today must think of their daughters. The abbreviated skirts are bad, but what is worse is the way these fashions outline every feature of a woman's form.

According to the crusaders, Atlanta women use more paint and powder than those of any other city.

Mrs. Catherine Wooten, head of the Carnegie Library, says: "A traveling man from the North, representing a firm of druggists, told me that Atlanta is the best rouge and face powder market in the country. I do not wonder that Atlanta is one of the best face powder markets, Atlanta girls are like walking advertisements of a paint company."

The crusaders say they intend to ask council to pass an ordinance regulating street dresses of women.

Caring for Houseplants.

Often one hears it said:—"Oh, my plants die because I have no time to fuss with them." Then why buy them? It is only a waste of money, and to a true plant lover seems an act of cruelty.

The most important thing is that water should be given intelligently—that is, when the plant needs it. There can be no hard and fast rule laid down as to how often or how much water to give a plant, for conditions vary. Evaporation may be much greater at one time than at another. The best rule to follow for nearly all plants, except ferns, is to give a thorough drenching and then allow the surface soil to become dry before watering thoroughly again. Ferns require more water than most plants, and the earth should never be allowed to become entirely dry.

Never water with cold water; temper the water before using it.

Dust is an enemy to plant life. Plants breathe through their leaves, therefore it is necessary to keep them free from dust. At least once a week and oftener if the room is very warm or dusty, the plants should be put in the bath tub and gently sprinkled with a bath spray.

Rain of course, never falls on the plants at the temperature and force it comes from a city hydrant. Therefore, give them a gentle shower, but see that all parts of the leaves are thoroughly washed.

Auditor's Notice.

FARMERS' INSTITUTES

Prominent State Speakers Scheduled to Address Centre County Meetings.

Four prominent State speakers have been assigned to address the several Farmers' Institutes, to be held in Centre County during the week beginning December 4. They are J. H. Peachey, of Belleville; E. B. Dorsett, of Mansfield; Fred W. Clark, of Sylvania, and M. N. Clark, of Claridge. All four speakers will address each meeting. As already announced, the schedule of institutes is as follows:

Eagleville, Monday and Tuesday, December 4 and 5.

Centre Hall, Wednesday and Thursday, December 6 and 7.

Stormstown, Friday and Saturday, December 8 and 9.

The several chairmen of local committees are J. A. Bitner, of Eagleville; C. R. Neff, of Centre Hall, and John I. Gray, of Stormstown. The County Board of Managers consists of John A. Wooward, W. F. Reynolds and Willard Dale.

Livestock and Poultry.

Clean, dry bedding is a prime requisite in the care of live stock. There are no exceptions to this rule.

Folks will begin now to set their milk in the kitchen pantry. It is a poor place at best, and to get good cream you must keep every single thing away from the milk that has any smell about it.

The mare with the fall colt should be kept most of the time in a roomy, warm box stall.

The colts and unused horses should spend most of each pleasant day in the paddock.

If any horses are to be idle during the winter give a light diet, but do not take all grain away from them.

Only the wealthy man can afford to keep a poor cow.

A chill brought on by the udder coming in contact with the frosty ground may ruin your best cow.

Shrinkage in milk, lumps in the udder, staring coat, can all be brought on by one night on the frosty ground. All this means loss of hard cash. It doesn't pay.

Get the roots and other forage for the swine stored away for winter use.

It should be remembered that a hog's coat of hair is not heavy nor of the kind to keep out extreme cold. Consequently it feels the changes in temperature most keenly.

Rheumatism in hogs is caused by improper feeding, which produces indigestion, by lack of exercise and by dampness and exposure to drafts. It is easier to prevent the disease than it is to cure it.

Lay in the winter's supply of road dust or sifted coal-ashes, as it will be needed for dust baths.

A load of gravel scattered around houses and coops would greatly contribute to the health of many a flock.

A hen will eat at least a bushel of corn a year it she can get it. Put aside that amount for each one, and see that each one gets her share.

Let dressed poultry of all kinds be cool clear through before offering it for sale. Limp poultry does not sell so well as that which is good and stiff.

Secure a lot of leaves or other light litter for use, during cold weather, in making the hens exercise. Idle hens become mischievous and unhealthy stock.

Gather in the poultry that have been allowed to roost outdoors. The sooner they become accustomed to the house the better it will be for their health and improvement.

When a hen is determined to sit, and
"Trying, ducking and screaming 'shoo,' Fail with Speckle, and she sits it through."
just put thirteen fresh, fertile eggs under her, feed and water occasionally, and let it go at that. It saves wear and tear on the nerves, and she gets over it better and more quickly; and if she hatches anything you are that much ahead. Farm Journal.

Unclaimed Letters.

The following letters remain unclaimed at the Bellefonte post-office for the last week: Miss Alice Leathers, Mrs. Nathaniel Lindemuth, Miss Elizabeth Peters, Mrs. A. L. Riggs (4), Miss Helen Thomas, C. D. Troy. Persons calling for these letters will kindly explain that the same have been advertised in "The Republican."

If You Are A Trifle Sensitive.

About the size of you shoes, it's some satisfaction to know that many people can wear shoes a size smaller by shaking Allen's Foot-Ease into them. Just the thing for Patent Leather Shoes, and for breaking in New Shoes. Sold Everywhere, 25c. Sample Free. Address, Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

To Make Candles Fit.

Dip a candle in hot water to soften the wax and then push it into the candlestick that would otherwise be too large or too small. If too small, the candle can be squeezed in; if too large the soft wax will spread and hold the candle up.

Footwear Extravagance.

You cannot economize on your fee this season when they are so much in evidence, and, therefore every woman will have to take up the two subjects together—the kind of suit she buys and the kind of shoes she will get to go with the suit.

Complete Teachers' Institute Program.

Announcement was made this week by County Superintendent Etters of the program for the sixty-fifth annual session of the Centre County Teachers' Institute, which will be held in the Court House from Monday, November 13, to Friday, November 17. The twenty-fifth annual meeting of the Centre County School Directors' Association will be held in the auditorium of the New High School Building on Wednesday and Thursday, November 15 and 16.

This year's session of the teachers' institute comes one month earlier than in recent years. Heretofore, it has been the complaint of Bellefonte citizens that they were too busy during the Christmas holiday season to attend the day sessions of the institute and the evening entertainments. There will be no ground for such complaint this year, and Superintendent Etters extends a cordial invitation to the people of Bellefonte to attend the several sessions and entertainments. The complete institute program follows:

OFFICERS OF INSTITUTE.

PRESIDENT—David O. Etters, State College, Pa.
VICE PRESIDENTS—B. I. Meyers, Philipsburg, Pa.; Jonas E. Wagner, Bellefonte, Pa.

CERTIFICATES, 1912.

Examination dates for provisional and professional certificates will be announced later.

Section 1304 specifies that candidates for a professional certificate shall pass a thorough examination in the branches required for a provisional certificate as well as in any two of the following subjects, namely: Vocal Music, Drawing, English Literature, Plane Geometery, General History, Physical Geography, Elementary Botany, Elementary Zoology, or Elementary Physics, and shall satisfy the Superintendent by written or oral tests, that they have carefully and intelligently read two books on pedagogy, approved by the Superintendent of Public Instruction. The following have been approved for 1912: Colegrove's The Teacher and the School; Seeley's School Management; White's School Management; Sabin's Common Sense Didactics; Brook's Methods of Teaching; McMurray's How to Study.

It is suggested that the candidates for the 1912 examination make preparation on the first two named on the list.

The School Code repealed the law providing for county permanent certificates and makes provision for a State permanent certificate requiring an examination in twenty-four (24) branches. It is planned to divide these required branches so that applicants may be examined in part of them at one time and in the others at one or two subsequent periods as follows:

Preliminary Group—Spelling, Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, Geography, English Grammar, History of U. S. and of Pennsylvania, Civil Government, Methods of teaching and one approved book on pedagogy.

Final Branches, First Group—Vocal Music, Drawing, Physical Geography, Elementary Botany, Plain Geometry, and one approved book on pedagogy.

Final Branches, Second Group—Elementary Zoology, General History, Elementary Physics, English Literature and two approved books on pedagogy.

Applicants may take all the required branches at one examination.

For the 1912 examination, any four of the following approved texts may be selected as preparations in pedagogy:

Hamilton's Recitation; White's Elements of Pedagogy; Bryan's The Basis of Practical Teaching; Kern's Among Country Schools; Coulter's Practical Nature Study and Elementary Agriculture; Allen's Civics and Health; James' Talks to Teachers on Psychology; Chancellor's Our Schools, Their Administration and Supervision; Dutton's School Management; The Teaching of English by Carpenter, Baker and Scott; Young's Teaching of Mathematics.

For the purpose of holding the examinations for the permanent certificate, the State is divided into twenty-four districts. Centre Clinton, Lycoming and Tioga counties compose the twelfth district. The first examination will be held in Williamsport, second Friday and Saturday in Aug. 1912.

On Wednesday during Institute, a High School Round Table will be held in the Grand Jury Room. The conference is called for 10.30 a. m., Mr. Jonas E. Wagner, chairman.

A Few Expressions Touching upon the Lecturers and Entertainers who are to appear before the Institute:

"If we have laughed at the club's entertainments, Krebs told us how the laugh did us good. His 'Bouncing the Blues' is sufficient to show why he is one of the most gifted platform lecturers"—Chicago Press Club.

"Bouncing the Blues"—Musical and mental merriment. A barrel of fact, a bushel of fun, a bite of philosophy"—Asbury Park, N. J., The Journal.

Prof. and Mrs. Hipps come from Dr. Byron W. King's School of Oratory. The fact that these people are members of Dr. King's Faculty is in itself an assurance that this will be a great entertainment. There should be few vacant seats in the Court House on Tuesday evening.

Lou J. Beauchamp is said to have more return dates than any other platform orator of the day. "Take the Sunny Side" has been given eleven times in one city, four times in one Chautaqua, three times in one course.

From The Republican News, Hamilton, Ohio.—
"There was a laugh or a cry almost every moment of the evening. The poeple fairly went wild over the lecture."

From The Lynn, Mass, Item.
"The wit and mimicry of the speaker threw the audience into paroxysms of health-giving laughter."
"The Songs that Mother Used to Sing" are still the songs of the common people. To render these in quartette form, expressions of all that nature melody so dear to the hearts of all of us, is the central theme in the program of the Aylesworth Sisters—Empire Lyceum Bureau.

The quartette work was tuneful and harmonious and the instrumental selections, two mandolins and two guitars, afforded much pleasure. Their rendition of "Put On Your Old Gray Bonnet," sung to mandolin and guitars accompaniment, was the comic hit of the evening.

It was a great evening and it is hoped that this quartette will soon come again—Brattleboro, Vermont, Phoenix.

The Tombigbee.

"Do you know the origin of the name of the Tombigbee river?" asked the well informed man. "Well," he went on, "it is Choctaw, every syllable, only the word is not "Tombigbee;' it is 'Tom-bi Ik-bi,' two words, the 'i' being short in each instance. Long ago Choctaws inhabited the section now embraced within the states of Mississippi and Alabama and traversed by the stream that song was about. Nearly a century ago a white man—a carpenter—came among the Indians. He lived on the banks of the stream and among other things made rude coffins for burials. Indians at that time "buried" their dead upon an arbor supported by poles, but they gradually came to the white man's custom of burying in earth and went to the white man carpenter to get their boxes. From this incident, I am told, the stream received its name, 'Tom-bi' meaning box and 'Ik-bi' meaning make or maker, only they added the word 'bok,' which signifies river or creek, so, literally translated, the combination means 'the river where lives the man that makes boxes.' Time as well as the Anglo-Saxon disposition to round corners in pronunciation Anglicized 'Tom-bi Ik-bi' into 'Tombigbee.'—Wichita Eagle.

The Uplift Movement.

When he left the house Saturday morning Burton yanked at the door as if he would pull it off its hinges. When he couldn't open it he started to grumble until his wife came to his assistance.

"What'n blue blazes is the matter with this door?" he grumbled, giving it another powerful yank without being able to open it.

"The trouble with you, John, dear," the wife ventured, "is that you are always down on everything—down in the mouth, down on the world. Let me try it."

With a gentle tug upward on the knob she easily opened the door.

John was about to sputter out a sarcastic remark when the force of his wife's logic sank in his thick skull.

"I get it!" he exclaimed. "I get the lesson."

That afternoon when his wife visited his office she saw over his desk a little motto with the words, "Me For the Uplift."—Youngstown Telegram.

A Sign of a Crowd.

A very fat, puffing, elderly woman stepped up to the box office of the Chestnut Street theater and, placing a coin on the ticket window, said:

"Give me a ticket to the gallery."

"You are at the wrong window, madam," said the ticket seller. "The gallery ticket office is to your left as you go out of the door."

The old woman walked down the steps and, advancing a few feet, glanced around inquiringly and then let her gaze wander to the iron fire escape which was suspended above the sidewalk.

Going back to the main box office, she said:

"Say, me boy, Oi can't get in there; it's crowded."

"Crowded?"

"Sure, it must be," she said. "They have the steps pulled up."—Philadelphia Times.

With an Eye to the Future.

"It would probably take many generations of adversity to train Americans into the farseeing thriftiness of my people," once observed an American of Scotch birth. "I remember a case of a Scotchwoman who had been promised a new bonnet by a lady. Before she undertook the purchase the lady called and asked the good woman:

"'Would you rather have a felt or a straw bonnet, Mrs. Carmichael?'

"'Weel,' responded Mrs. Carmichael thoughtfully, 'I think I'll tak' a straw ane. It'll maybe be a mouthfu' to the coo when I'm done wi' it.'"—Lippincott's.

Crockett's Revenge.

There is a story of Crockett of "Stickit Minister" fame to the effect that when he offered his first volume to a Scotch firm it was returned with a polite note assuring him that there was no market for that sort of thing. The letter was marked "No. 396b." In later years when the same publishers asked him for one of his manuscripts he politely requested them to refer to their previous correspondence with him marked "396b."

The Lathe.

Originally intended to be operated by the physical exertion of one man, the lathe has now reached such a state of development that in many cases forty to sixty horsepower, or the equivalent of 600 men, is necessary to operate it. It is one of the earliest forms of tool to be driven by machinery.

Novelty Excited Curiosity.

Owtlaight—I had an awful time thinking up an excuse to give my wife when I got home from the club last night. Lushman—Did she demand one? Owtlaight—Of course. I got home so early that it piqued her curiosity.—Exchange.

An Insult.

"Have you ever written on an empty stomach?" asked the mere man.

"Sir!" exclaimed the literary person "I am a poet, not a tattoo artist!"

He Found His Man.

Englishmen are rather fond of poking fun at those parts of Great Britain where other than the Anglo-Saxon element is dominant, and a favorite subjet for jest is the prevalence of the Jones family in Wales.

One of the colleges of Oxford university was much resorted to by Welshmen. A man from another college looking for a friend went into its quadrangle and shouted, "Jones!"

All the windows looking on the quadrangle flew open.

"I mean John Jones," said the searcher.

Half the windows closed.

"I mean the John Jones who has a toothbrush," he explained.

All the windows closed but one.—Topeka State Journal.

A Stitch of Pain.

A stitch is a sharp, spasmodic pain in the muscles of the side like the piercing of a needle and is very apt to be produced if exercise is taken immediately after a hearty meal. This arises because the nervous energy necessary for the proper working of the muscles in exercise is engaged in another direction—namely, in assisting the digestion of the food. Anything that interferes with the proper supply of nervous energy required for exercise, whether it be debility or the process of digestion or exhaustion arising from overexertion, is apt to cause this spasmodic pain.

Justifiable Protest.

"My wife is one of the unluckiest persons I know," began a Cedar avenue man, who tells long stories about his household affairs.

"She sure is," agreed the victim of the conversation fervently. But his mild sarcasm was lost.

"She was hit by a street car recently," pursued the narrator, "and got a broken arm. That's the fourth time in less than a year that something has happened to her. When they brought her to her senses this time I leaned over her sympathetically. 'Better, my dear?' says I. 'It ain't fair!' she yells. 'What ain't fair?' I asks gently. 'Why,' she groans, 'you're the one that carries all the accident insurance in this family, and I'm the one that always gets hurt. It ain't fair!'"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Kangaroo's Kick.

When a big "old man" kangaroo stiffens his tail and converts it into a sort of revolving pivot bearing the whole weight of his body, leaving his tremendously powerful legs free for attack and defense, everybody who does not want to be ripped up or thrown in a heap for a considerable distance will give the marsupial a wide berth. Only those who have seen the full grown kangaroo in his native Australian bush with his back to a tree, scattering dogs, bleeding and torn, right and left, can form any adequate idea of the prodigious strength the animal is capable of exerting when he finds himself in a tight corner.

The Old Man's Opinion.

Mr. Scrimppe—I asked your daughter a very important question last night, and she referred me to you.

Old Gentleman—H'm! What did you ask her?

"I asked her if she'd marry me."

"Well, she won't."

"Eh? Has she said so?"

"No, but from what I know of the girl I don't believe she would have bothered herself about me if she had really wanted you."—New York Weekly.

Tommy's Decision.

Teacher—Now, Tommy, suppose a man gave you $100 to keep for him and then died, what would you do? Would you pray for him? Tommy—No, sir, but I would pray for another like him.

No Color In the Dark.

In the dark there is no such a thing as color. The reddest dress is just the same color as a pure white tablecloth when both are placed in a dark closet. If you would understand this assume the presence of a light wave motion in the ether. The color of light depends upon the length of these waves. The light waves producing the colors in the blue end of the spectrum are very short compared with those that produce the colors near the red end. The light source that we know as red gives off only waves of a length to produce that particular color. A body appears red because its surface absorbs all the other waves and reflects the red waves back into the eye. If an attempt is made to light a blue body with red light it will fail, because the blue body is capable of reflecting only the short waves producing the blue, and since the red source produces none of these there will be no reflection and the body will appear black. A thing looks black when it is capable of absorbing all the colors at once.—St. Louis Republic.

Improving the Book of Job.

I remember the relief with which, after long feeling the sway of Franklin's imperturbable common sense, I came upon a project of his for a new version of the book of Job to replace the old version, the style of which, says Franklin, has become obsolete and hence less agreeable. "I give," he continues, "a few verses which may serve as a sample of the kind of version I would recommend."

We all recollect the famous verse in our translation, "Then Satan answered the Lord and said, Doth Job fear God for naught?" Franklin makes this, "Does your majesty imagine that Job's good conduct is the effect of mere personal attachment and affection?"

I well remember how, when I first read that, I drew a deep breath of relief and said to myself, "After all, there is a stretch of humanity beyond Franklin's victorious good sense."—Matthew Arnold's "Culture and Anarchy."

An Awful Experience.

A native diver descended into the water to see whether one of the piers, then in course of construction, had set. While he was engaged in this work a great iron cylinder subsided a little, crushing his hand between it and the masonry. When, on a signal being given, another diver came down he found his unfortunate comrade imprisoned under water without hope of escape. After a few moments of mute despair and harrowing uncertainty a speechless decision was arrived at, and the newcomer proceeded with chisel and hammer to hack off his unhappy companion's hand at the wrist. The prisoner was thus liberated, but died soon after reaching the surface from the shock. Never, I think, has an opium eater in his dreams imagined a more pitiful spectacle of hopeless human suffering.—"Travels In India."

Vice Versa.

Teacher—I would like some one in the class to define the meaning of vice versa. Bright Boy—It's sleeping with your feet toward the head of the bed.

Good deeds ring clear through heaven like a bell.—Richter.

Another Quibble.

"Don't you hate to sleep in an upper berth?"

"No; I like to sleep when I have to take an upper berth."—Chicago Record-Herald.

His Idea of the Show.

"What do you think of the plot?" asked the theater manager.

"That isn't a plot," replied the man who had paid $2 to see the show. "That's a conspiracy."—Washington Star.

CHICAGO MERCHANT MAKES STATEMENT.

After Spending Thousands of Dollars and Consulting the Most Eminent Physicians, He Was Desperate.

CHICAGO, ILLS.—Mr. J. G. Becker, of 134 Van Buren St., a well-known wholesale dry goods dealer, states as follows:

"I have had catarrh for more than thirty years. Have tried everything on earth and spent thousands of dollars for other medicines and with physicians, without getting any lasting relief, and can say to you that I have found Peruna the only remedy that has cured me permanently.

"Peruna has also cured my wife of catarrh. She always keeps it in the house for an attack of cold, which it invariably cures in a very short time."

Proposed amendments to the Constitution submitted to the citizens of this Commonwealth for their approval or rejection, by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and published by order of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, in pursuance of Article XVIII of the Constitution.

Number One.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, so as to consolidate the courts of common pleas of Allegheny County.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendment to the Constitution of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby, proposed, in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:—

That section six of article five be amended, by striking out the said section, and inserting in place thereof the following:

Section 6. In the county of Philadelphia all the jurisdiction and powers now vested in the district courts and courts of common pleas, subject to such changes as may be made by this Constitution or by law, shall be in Philadelphia vested in five distinct and separate courts of equal and co-ordinate jurisdiction, composed of three judges each. The said courts in Philadelphia shall be designated respectively as the court of common pleas number one, number two, number three, number four, and number five, but the number of said courts may be by law increased, from time to time, and shall be in like manner designated by successive numbers. The number of judges in any of said courts, or in any county where the establishment of an additional court may be authorized by law, may be increased, from time to time, and whenever such increase shall amount in the whole to three, such three judges shall compose a distinct and separate court as aforesaid, which shall be numbered as aforesaid. In Philadelphia all suits shall be instituted in the said courts of common pleas without designating the number of the said court, and the several courts shall distribute and apportion the business among them in such manner as shall be provided by rules of court, and each court to which any suit shall be thus assigned, shall have exclusive jurisdiction thereof, subject to change of venue, as shall be provided by law.

In the county of Allegheny all the jurisdiction and powers now vested in the several numbered courts of common pleas shall be vested in one court of common pleas, composed of all the judges in commission in said courts. Such jurisdiction and powers shall extend to all proceedings at law and in equity which shall have been instituted in the several numbered courts, and shall be subject to such changes as may be made by law, and subject to change of venue as provided by law. The president judge of said court shall be selected as provided by law. The number of judges in said court may be by law increased from time to time. This amendment shall take effect on the first day of January succeeding its adoption.

Number Two.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to section eight, article nine, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:—

Amendment to Article Nine, Section Eight.

Section 2. Amend section eight, article nine, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, which reads as follows:—

"Section 8. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which now exceeds seven per centum of such assessed valuation, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum, in the aggregate, at any one time, upon such valuation," so as to read as follows:—

Section 8. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which now exceeds seven per centum of such assessed valuation, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum, in the aggregate, at any one time, upon such valuation, except that any debt or debts hereinafter incurred by the city and county of Philadelphia for the construction and development of subways for transit purposes, or for the construction of wharves and docks, or the reclamation of land to be used in the construction of a system of wharves and docks, as public improvements, owned or to be owned by said city and county of Philadelphia, and which shall yield to the city and county of Philadelphia current net revenue in excess of the interest on said debt or debts and of the annual installments necessary for the cancellation of said debt or debts, may be excluded in ascertaining the power of the city and county of Philadelphia to become otherwise indebted: Provided, That a sinking fund for their cancellation shall be established and maintained.

AN EPITAPH.

Unless the voters of Centre County step in on Tuesday and interfere, it will only be a matter of time when it will be necessary to put up a marble slab in the Court House and upon it inscribe the following:

"Here lies Dave. Born here. Raised here. Still here. Once he arrived here, Dave was some stayer."

SOME QUESTIONS NOT ASKED.

The "Centre Democrat" in an absent-minded moment, ventures to question somebody as to what party he supported in November, 1910. Below will be found a few timely questions which the "Centre Democrat" somehow or other forgot to ask:

Did not Editor Kurtz of the "Centre Democrat" desert the Democratic ticket last year and support the Keystone ticket? He did.

Did not William H. Noll, candidate for County Commissioner, desert the Democratic party last year and support the Keystone party? He did.

Did not Francis Speer, candidate for Recorder, desert the Democratic party last year and almost talk his head off for the Keystone party? He did.

Did not Democratic County Chairman Kimport throw down the Democratic party and go over bodily to the reorganizers at Harrisburg? He did.

If Kurtz and Noll and Speer and Kimport were bundled up together would all four of them make one simon-pure Democrat? Consult P. Gray Meek. You will not need an ear trumpet.

The Democratic ballot should read: "For Prothonotary, Foreman and Kimport. Its all in the family. Vote for one and you vote for both of us."

So Dave Foreman says that he has spent his entire life in the Court House, but in fact has not been holding office. No doubt, Dave would say an omelet isn't eggs.

What was that description that seemed to fit so well upon the brow of the editor of the "Democratic Watchman?" Oh, yes. "Narrow, bigoted, offensive partisan from the day he was old enough to take sides in politics."

Ed. Williams had been conducting such a clean, dignified campaign for Register that the Democratic newspapers have been at their wits end to dig up something against him. He has so many friends over the county that campaign lies against him have rough sledding.

To read the "Democratic Watchman" these days and observe its methods one would suppose the present political campaign were being conducted somewhere back in the Forties. First thing you know it will be slandering one of the Democratic candidates because he married a Republican wife.

Is Against All Progress.

The "Democratic Watchman" is not only attacking Messrs Zimmerman and Woodring for their improvements to the Court House but it is trying to poison the people against locating the new State penitentiary within the borders of Centre County. Because they know it is the greatest opportunity likely to ever present itself to Centre County, our business men and others are exerting themselves to the utmost to have the new penitentiary located within the county. The project means the employment of hundreds of working men. It means the circulation of thousands of dollars monthly among our people. It means the building of a street railway line to State College. It means progress all along the line. Meaning so much to Centre County one would suppose the "Democratic Watchman" would not resort to petty politics to poison the people against it. But it seems that the "Democratic Watchman" is against all progress, that it is against the penitentiary project just as it is against the progressive administration of affairs at the Court House by Messrs. Zimmerman and Woodring. In its last issue the "Democratic Watchman" published this cowardly and false statement in its political columns:

"An interesting side light on one of the effects the location of the penitentiary in this community would have was revealed by an old Benner Twp. farmer on Wednesday when he remarked: 'State properties pay no taxes. Exempt four thousand acres of the best land in Benner Twp. from taxation and it is going to make the burden much heavier on the rest of us.' He was right, too, for there will be just as many miles of roads to keep up and just as many schools to maintain."

The foregoing statement is a deliberate lie. In the first place it is cowardly, because no "old Benner Twp. farmer" said any such thing. In the second place it is false because the State does pay a school and road tax on every acre of State land. The "Democratic Watchman" knows this to be a fact or it must confess to a state of ignorance beyond all hope of repair.

If the "Democratic Watchman" could have had its way the Court House would not have been repaired. Likewise, the new penitentiary would be kept from coming to Centre County. The "Democratic Watchman" is a creature and exponent of the dark ages. That is why it is against the penitentiary project. That is why it is against Messrs. Zimmerman and Woodring and progressive citizenship. That is why it is against all progress.

A MATTER OF HONOR.

Just supposing that you were a more or less distinguished citizen in your home community, and that you took occasion to invite some county officials to your home, and that you there assured them you would stand by them to the finish if they would do their duty and make needed repairs to a certain public building.

Now just supposing that you happened to invite some other distinguished citizens to your home on that particular evening and that while there they also took occasion to assure your guests, namely, the certain public officials, that to a man they would loyally stand by them for doing their duty.

Way down in your boots you, as a man, would consider it a little matter of honor to carry out your promise to the public officials in question, wouldn't you? Deep down in your heart you, as a man, would take a lot of pride in knowing that all of your invited friends of that particular occasion were also carrying out their promises, now wouldn't you? Of course you would. So would any man with red blood in his veins.

But just supposing that you and some of your invited friends were now violating your promise; in other words that you and some of your invited friends were now turning up as eleventh-hour "welchers." Wouldn't you despise yourself, and wouldn't you be just a little bit ashamed to meet other men face to face? You might pretend that you wouldn't, but you would, just the same.

Wouldn't you be compelled to feel that you and some of your invited friends had done more than any other group of citizens in all this community to put a blight upon any hope of public improvements in the future? Wouldn't you be compelled to feel that you and some of your friends, moreso than all others, had taught public officials that ingratitude is your conception of reward for work well done? Try to run away from it all you might, wouldn't you actually know that you had committed a great moral wrong and that all the community fully understood that you had committed such a wrong?

If you happen to be one of a certain group who solemnly pledged support to Messrs. Woodring and Zimmerman if they would repair the Court House and who now are "welching" on that pledge, keep in mind that between now and next Tuesday evening you still have an opportunity to square yourself with your conscience and put yourself right in the estimation of your neighbors and friends. Also keep in mind that if you fail to redeem your pledge the future has in store for you the same reward which other false men have reaped in the past and that, just as other pledge-breakers have done, you will live to see the day when you will regret that you sacrificed your manhood in what should have been a matter of honor as between man and man.

On Tuesday you vote for or against progressive citizenship. The surest way to be on the side of progressive citizenship is to make a cross in the Republican square in the first column on the ballot.

CONVICTS ITSELF.

So reckless and glaring have been the campaign utterances in the "Centre Democrat" that to all persons it has been quite apparent that newspaper needed but enough rope and it would attend to its own execution. In its issue of last week the "Centre Democrat" demonstrated that it had finally secured enough rope and promptly proceeded to hang itself.

Early in the campaign the "Centre Democrat" indulged in a cowardly attack on Josiah Pritchard, of Philipsburg, the Republican nominee for County Treasurer. It contended that Mr. Pritchard was not eligible, just as if Philipsburg were not in and a part of Centre County and very properly entitled to representation in the administration of county affairs.

Next the "Centre Democrat" said that Mr. Pritchard had just moved into Centre County, that he had only resided in the county "a year or two." In its issue of last week the "Centre Democrat" revised its original lie and confessed to knowledge that Mr. Pritchard had resided in Centre County for eight years, at least. In the same breath it addressed to Mr. Pritchard a list of questions to ascertain just how long he had been residing in the county.

It is just about two hundred feet from the "Centre Democrat" office to the Court House, where may be found the records showing that Mr. Pritchard has been a taxpayer in Centre County since February, 1900. The "Centre Democrat" lied when it fixed Mr. Pritchard's residence in the county at "a year or two." It lied again when it said he had lived in the county but eight years. Its a fortunate thing for Mr. Pritchard that the campaign has but a few days more to run, for were the "Centre Democrat" to continue at this pace in revising its numerous lies that newspaper would wind up by picturing him as an old man with long whiskers and making affidavit to his being the actual founder and original settler in Centre County.

Dan Grove and his Democratic supporters have at last awakened to the fact that they are being traded off for votes for Noll and Lee. Had Dan kept his eyes open he would have discovered this four weeks ago. Tragedy is mixed with humor in the fact that the money Grove paid over as his campaign assessment is being used to help Noll and Lee. Meanwhile Dan must paddle his own canoe. Apparently he is trying to overcome the odds against him by throwing overboard everybody else on the Democratic ticket and going the limit to elect Grove.

If Woodring and Zimmerman are defeated on Tuesday, that instant notice is served on all public officials for years to come to make no repairs to public property, no matter how badly needed. The re-election of these two men means that other officials will have courage to do their duty.

If you fail to vote you forfeit your right to complain about the result.

After eight months effort to scare up something, the enemies of Woodring and Zimmerman confess] their inability to produce a single dishonorable act or a single penny dishonestly spent.

The average Democratic campaign howler is opposed to a progressive administration in public affairs. At the same time he has no objection to enjoying the benefits resulting from progressive policies.

The methods employed by the "Democratic Watchman" in the present campaign are the same as those used by that newspaper during the days of the Civil War. Appealing to the passions of voters may have been popular with a certain element fifty years ago, but such methods meet with no response in the minds of the thinking, intelligent citizens of the present period.

That surely was a funny break the "Centre Democrat" made when it asked somebody what party ticket he voted last year. The "Centre Democrat" deserted the Democratic ticket at that particular election. So did Francis Speer, candidate for Recorder. So did W. H. Noll, candidate for County Commissioner. All three now profess to be Democrats. What nerve!

Democrats who have at one time or another been in the employ of George Yarnell laugh at the funny column in the "Democratic Watchman." When that newspaper says that Mr. Yarnell injects politics into business and never employs men who happen to be Democrats it fools nobody—least of all the very Democrats who have been in Mr. Yarnell's employ. Yarnell's opponent for Sheriff is licked to a finish, and the "Democratic Watchman" knows it.

Harry Diehl is not going about the county passing out insinuating statements about his opponent. He is too honorable to stoop to such methods in order to be elected Prothonotary. Just keep in mind one thing. He not only stands for a square deal in public affairs but also a square deal in giving others a chance for public honors. If elected he would be satisfied with a reasonable number of years in the Court House. Unlike his opponent, Dave Foreman, he doesn't ask you to keep him on the payroll for life.

Paul Fortney is now promising that if elected District Attorney he will qualify himself to represent Centre County in the Supreme Court. Of course, But will he? When he thought a law would be passed requiring this qualification didn't he start to qualify himself? And when he found that such a law would not go through didn't he promptly quit qualifying himself? Once he is elected District Attorney it will be much easier for him to hire some lawyer to represent Centre County who is qualified to practice in the higher courts. When it is too late you will find out that Jones pays the freight. Better save the freight by electing Mr. Furst. If he is elected District Attorney you will not find entered up in the county ledger items reading like this:

"To services of a real lawyer representing District Attorney in Supreme Court, $500."

It is strange but nevertheless true that the fellow who has thousands of dollars in bank is usually the one who tries to work the poverty racket to catch your vote. Of course, once you know the facts and such a fellow gets away with your vote you have but yourself to blame. Recorder Brown is not putting up any sympathy game. He is not working the poverty scheme. He is standing up like a man, telling you that he wants your vote because he is competent to properly record your deeds. As proof of his efficiency he refers you to the records in his office. The work in the office of the Recorder of Deeds was never done more accurately and promptly than has been the case under Recorder Brown. Knowing this and knowing the qualifications of the two candidates, your own common sense and sound judgment will enable you to quickly decide that you will vote for Recorder Brown. If you don't, you will be the one properly qualified to seek sympathy.

Everybody who knows W. H. Goss and Clement H. Gramley knows that they are ideal men for the office of County Auditor. Both are ruggedly honest and conservative. Just the type of men you naturally want to audit your county books.

Vote early on Tuesday and vote the straight Republican ticket.

SPECIAL COURT

Judge Hall Presides Over Session for Judge Orvis.

Special Term of Court convened on Monday morning with the Hon. Ellis L. Orvis and the Hon. Harry Alvan Hall, of Ridgway, on the bench.

After hearing some motions and petitions Judge Orvis retired from the bench and Judge Hall then proceeded with a list of special cases especially marked for trial and argument before him, the same being special to Judge Orvis.

The first case J. H. Lingle vs. Louis Rosenthal, being an appeal. Neither plaintiff nor defendant being present, the Court entered a compulsory nonsuit.

S. Miller McCormick and Alpheus A. Hall, Executors of Samuel Hall, deceased, vs. William B. Confer, John G. Confer and George A. Confer, being an action in ejectment to recover a tract of land in Snow Shoe Township. Plaintiff, not being present the Court entered a compulsory nonsuit.

John Bowden and A. M. Northrop vs. New York and Pennsylvania Company, being an action in trespass. Settled.

Mylert M. Armstrong to use of New York and Pennsylvania Company, a corporation, vs. John Bowden and A. M. Northrop, being an action in trespass. Settled.

Same vs. A. T. White, being an action in trespass. Settled.

J. Henry Meyer, Admr. of etc., of Henry Meyer, deceased, and J. Henry Meyer, executor of etc. of Jacob Meyer, deceased, Cyrus Durst, Philip Durst, George Durst, William B. Mingle, administrator c. t. s. of Elizabeth Durst, deceased, Alice Ruhl, Mrs. Catherine Sanders, Esther Musser and Anna Durst, heirs at law of Catherine Durst, deceased, Margaret E. Keller, Admrx. of etc. of John H. Keller, deceased, Mary Heilman, Catherine Weiland, J. W. Stamm and Mary Stamm, heirs at law of Mary Keller, deceased, vs. Margaret E. Keller, admrx. of etc. of John H. Keller, deceased, with notice to William Tressler, executor of Thomas Meyer, deceased, Levi Meyer, John A. Meyer, H. B. Meyer, Mary J. Tressler, Sadie Baney, W. H. Hunsinger, F. T. Hunsinger and Hattie Meyer, the last named being a minor and having for testamentary guardian William Tressler, the above named terre tenants being heirs and legal representatives of Thomas Meyer, deceased. Being an action of Scire Facias Sur mortgage and the suit is brought to recover upon a mortgage dated June 3, 1870, upon premises in Harris Township and given by J. H. Keller to Jacob Meyer, Henry Meyer, Catherine Durst and Mary Keller, conditioned to pay the interest thereon to Margaret Meyer, widow of Joseph Meyer as long as she shall live, and at her death the sum of $5750 to the mortgagees. The facts and circumstances out of which this case grows are in substance that Joseph Meyer, who died during the later 60's without heirs and left a widow, Rebecca Meyer, his estate descending to his brothers Jacob and Henry and his sisters Catherine Durst and Mary Keller. That by some arrangement on February 18, 1869, the said heirs made and executed a mortgage to Rebecca Meyer, the widow of Joseph Meyer, deceased, conditioned to pay $3500 on the first day of April, 1870, and the annual payment to said widow of $345 so long as she shall live, and on May 26, 1870 said heirs sold the premises to J. Henry Keller, and on the 3rd day of June of the said year took from said J. Henry Keller the mortgage upon which suit is brought.

The premises covered by both of said mortgages finally became vested in Cyrus Durst and the bond to Rebecca Meyer who had subsequently become Mrs. Sparr for the annual payment of $345 was entered of record sometime in 1870, and successively revived as the lien would expire, and sometime in 1899 the said Rebecca Sparr (nee Meyer) assigned and transferred all her right, title and interest to Thomas Meyer who had previously taken a mortgage on the premises covered by the two mortgages hereinbefore named, and the said Thomas Meyer then brought suit and recovered judgment on the bond due April 1, 1870, and also issued an alias Scire Facias on the mortgage given February, 1869, obtaining judgment thereon, whereupon he issued execution on the judgments of the two bonds and also judgment obtained upon the mortgage, and sold the premises at Sheriff's sale and bought them thereat, thus becoming the owner in fee of the premises. Thomas Meyer died a few years afterwards and the title naturally vested in his heirs. Rebecca Meyer or Sparr died in 1903 and the heirs of the mortgagees in the 1870 mortgage brought suit on said mortgage contending that it was a dower mortgage and that they were entitled to the sum therein named after the death of the widow, namely $5750. Notwithstanding the Sheriff's sale of 1899 on the '69 mortgage. The defendant's contending that they had the title in fee acquired by said Sheriff's sale, that when the brothers and sisters of Joseph Meyer gave their mortgage to Rebecca Meyer and subsequently sold it to J. H. Keller, and all their interests as heirs of their brother Joseph had merged in the '69 mortgage, that there was an absolute provision by the first bond secured by said '69 mortgage of $3500 which had not all been paid and no provision in the mortgage to pay any principal sum after the death of the widow. That the 1869 mortgage was a first mortgage, and that the 1879 mortgage could not change the law of merger and therefore was a second mortgage to the 1869 mortgage and that the plaintiffs could not recover. At the close of the plaintiffs' case the defendant asked for binding instructions in favor of the defendants, and after argument the Court directed the jury to find a verdict in favor of the defendants which was accordingly done

On the argument list the Court discharged the rules in the case of Harry Krape vs. the Howard Brick company, and Cyrus Brungart Sheriff vs. Burdine Butler, Jr., Mary Butler Executrix of James Butler, deceased, and Robert Cooke. And in the matter of the estate of William P. Lucas, late of Howard Borough, deceased, this cause was continued under propositions of settlement.

Mr. Pascoe, of the Blair County Bar, and A. Stewart Ulrich, of the Lebanon County Bar, were interested in proceedings in Court.

Court adjourned Wednesday, President Judge Orvis on the bench, for the purpose of hearing the case of Commonwealth vs. Harry Barner and Harvey Tressler, being the two boys who broke into Gillen's grocery store some time ago, of which this paper had an account at the time, Mr. Gillen being the prosecutor. These boys being young the case was tried in the Juveniie Court, the boys plead guilty and were sentenced to the Glen Mills School.

Joseph Conoway, charged with burglary, prosecutor Thomas F. Kelly, the defendant plead guilty and was sentenced to the Western Penitentiary for a period of not less than nine months.

When it is all said and done, you want your deeds to your property properly recorded. You can not have them properly recorded unless you elect somebody fitted for that kind of work. For this reason, if for no other, you owe it to yourself to vote for William H. Brown for Recorder.

The three-linked brotherhood had a blow-out last Monday evening when over 200 Odd Fellows assembled in the hall of Penns valley Lodge, No. 276, to witness the floor-work done by the Allegheny Gateway degree team, of Tyrone, in charge of John R. Cassler, who had his team well in hand. The work was done in such an efficient manner as to elicit many words of praise and admiration from those present. Music was furnished by the team orchestra. Centre Hall, State College, Boalsburg, Stormstown, Lemont and Tyrone lodges were well represented. The last report of the auditing committee showed a flourishing condition, with over 100 members on the roll. The initiation and third degrees were conferred upon the following members: James F. Hoover, Logan Johnson, Archie Laird, J. Calvin Sunday, G. W. Barto, H. E. Sunday, Harry Eyer, Charles T. Homan, Calvin Trostel, Edward Isenberg, J. D. Neidigh, Samuel Elder, Charles Colobine, I. E. McWilliams, W. H. Glenn, George T McWilliams, Clarence Irvin, and Reed R. Randolph, by card. At the conclusion of the work, D. D. G. M. Krebs took the chair and a number of encouraging addresses were made by the visiting brothers. Then all moved into the banquet hall, where the entertainment committee served a splendid supper, which was followed by a "smoker." Thus closed the biggest blow-out in the history of the lodge. At 3 o'clock the visiting brothers bid adieu, feeling well repaid for their visit to Penns valley Lodge, which was established in 1848. A special train was chartered from Tyrone for the visitors.

Mrs. George Lewis and son are visiting here.

Mrs. Lottie Purd, of Williamsport, spent Sunday with friends here.

Potter Alexander was a visitor in our town from Saturday until Tuesday.

Up to date W. A. Peters has hung the prize porker, one weighing 400 pounds.

M. C. Gephart, the Bellefonte piano man, transacted business in our town on Saturday.

We are sorry to note the fact that Miss Bessie Lonsberry is confined to her home and bed with quinsy.

Boyd Stere and Jesse Parsons, brakemen on the Bald Eagle valley, spent Sunday at their homes here.

Ralph Holt came all the way from Carroltown to put A. D. Lindemuth's automobile in running shape.

Philip Stere and wife and the latter's mother, from Ligonier, are visiting their numerous friends at that place.

Mrs. H. M. Stere and children are visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. V. L. Wagner, at Buck Horn, Pa.

We are glad to see the smiling face of Charles Holtzworth up town again after his long illness from typhoid fever.

Grant Hoover and a party with muskets arrived on Monday to be in time for the opening of the hunting season. Success to you, boys.

Our good neighbor, Edward Morrison, is in a critical condition, suffering from a complication of diseases. His many friends trust that he will soon recover.

J. J. Zahniser arrived here on Monday to accompany his wife home to Port Allegheny. Mrs. Zahniser greatly enjoyed a visit with her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Fisher.

Jim Stere and Harold Fisher sat up all night on Tuesday and counted the shot in each shell which they intend burying under the feathers on and immediately following the day of the big noise.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Taylor came to this place on Tuesday. Mr. Taylor has been ill for some time. When the physicians got down to a close study of his ailment they at once pronounced his disease to oe typhoid-turkey fever.

Mrs. Roy Miles and daughter spent Sunday here. It is a genuine pleasure to us to note that Mr. Miles, who has been so ill in the Bellefonte hospital from typhoid fever, is improving. His many friends hope for his speedy recovery.

Miss Susan McKinney, of Port Matilda, was in town last Saturday soliciting subscriptions for The Republican. Miss McKinney is second in the race according to the last published vote in the automobile contest. She is a hustler and her many friends in this section hope she comes under the wire a winner.

Dr. Musser and David Stewart, of Bellefonte, on Sunday morning started out for a little walk and some exercise. They headed over the Muncy mountains for Unionville and arrived here in the afternoon with their coat-tails dragging, but a little rest and a feed at the Peters House quickly put them in shape again and they returned on the evening train. Both were much delighted with their trip. Come again, boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Reach arrived here on Monday, the former for a little hunting and Mrs. Reach for some recreation. The former New York American leaguer loaded up his camp kit and went to the rattlesnake. The feature of the big leaguer's visit here was the stunning way in which he handled store boxes filled with provision at J. C. Stere and Son's store. He also made some very clever slides into houses here hunting good butter.

G. W. Morrison, after spending 33 long years as section-hand at this place under P. J. McDonnell, the able foreman, was retired on Tuesday. Mr. Morrison was one of the steadiest hands on the Bald Eagle valley road and his long, faithful service with the P. R. R. earned for him many positions as a foreman, but having lived here all his life, and owning his home in which he had raised a family of seven children, he always refused such offers. P. J. McDonnell served dinner in his honor on Tuesday evening, with the crew as guests. We hope to see Mr. Morrison live to make many trips to the pay car for his well earned pension.

Woodward.

R. A. Orndorf left for Philadelphia on Monday morning.

Mrs. A. C. Slifer and Mrs. N. W. Eby were visitors to Millheim one day last week.

Harry Stover and family spent the Sabbath with the former's parents, at Aaronsburg.

Miss Mabel Boob is spending several weeks with her brother, Clayton, in Mifflinburg,

Miss Minnie Grenoble, from Bellefonte, is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Grenoble

Fred Miller, accompanied by Miss Grace Boob, from Mifflinburg, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. Pheobe Wise.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hosterman, accompanied by their little granddaughter, Isabel Hosterman, from Buffalo, N. Y., drove to Bellefonte on Sunday, returning home on Monday.

Communion services will be held in the Evangelical Association church on Sunday evening and will be conducted by Rev. T. L. Wentz, of Allentown, and the pastor, Rev. C. D. Caris.

Special Sale.

Used engines and fixtures; smoke stack; spark arrester; automatic mill and saws; shafting and bearings; iron pulleys; mandrels; heavy iron jack cylinder; drag saw and bolters; store counters and tables; shop soiled sash, doors and shutters; odd lots of lumber, flooring and moulding; three buggies; also first-class lumber and mill work of all kinds.

Mt. Eagle.

John Miller and family spent Saturday with Mr. Miller's parents in Bellefonte.

Miss Pearl Gates and her brother, Daniel, spent Sunday with friends at Juniata.

Clair Gates, who is employed in Bellefonte, spent Sunday with his mother on the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. William Yeager, of West Virginia, circulated among Mt. Eagle friends on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rolland Brian, of Curtin, spent Sunday here with their daughter, Mrs. T. G. Leathers.

Mr. Jasper and his brother, from Renovo, tarried over Sunday at the home of William Bitner.

Mrs. Hayes and daughter, Minnie, of Howard, visited at the Daughenbaugh and Bathurst homes over Sunday.

Mrs. David Garthoof and daughter, of Lock Haven, spent Sunday with the former's sister, Miss Ella Leathers.

Mr. and Mrs. Ammon Gramley, of near Bellefonte, several days ago took dinner with the former's brother-in-law, J. F. Deitz.

James Clark, of Altoona, while enroute to Eagleville stopped over night here on Friday with his brother-in-law, Thomas Lucas.

John Braumbaugh, of Altoona, passed through Mt. Eagle on Saturday and stopped just long enough to say howdy-do to his father-in-law, J. R. Pheasant.

A quiet but very pretty wedding was solemnized on last Thursday when Albert Aikey and Miss Maude Deitz took the train for Lock Haven and were married by Rev. Mr. Baughman, pastor of the Mill Hall Disciple church. After the ceremony they returned to Mt. Eagle in time for a delicious wedding supper at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Deitz. In addition to the families of the happy young couple were George Hirman, Miss Ella Leathers and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Pheasant. Following the supper the boys gave the bride and groom a rousing send-off. Mr. and Mrs. Aikey departed on Sunday evening for Bellwood, where the groom had a house all ready for them to go to housekeeping. Mr. Aikey is employed in the shops at Bellwood and is a splendid young man. His bride is one of our best known and most popular young ladies. The many friends of the young couple wish them much happiness and success.

Stretching.

It imparts elasticity.

And it is good for one.

It will lift the vital organs.

It gives strength and poise to the body

The clothing must be loose and comfortable.

To begin any exercise one must stand erect.

The chest should be high, the head up and the chin in.

The body should rest on the balls of the feet not on the heels.

At first it may be enough to breathe deeply and slowly (mouth closed) while standing.

This alone is a fine thing if practiced in the open air or before a window open top and bottom, for five to ten minutes twice a day.

Now for the stretching, sweep the arms slowly outward and upward until they touch above the head, lifting the chest walls and streching the arms.

Lower the arms with the same sweep, stretching them all the time. Five times will be enough at first, breathing deeply and slowly all the time.

Parent-Teachers Meeting.

The next meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association will be held on Monday evening, November 6, at 7.45 o'clock, in the auditorium of the New High School Building. It will be a "social meeting." Vocal music will be furnished by some of the young ladies of the High School and the Brandman orchestra, composed of the Brandman family, will render several selections. A report of the twelfth annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers Association, which was held in Williamsport, October 5, 6 and 7, will be given by Mrs. John S. Walker, who attended as a delegate. A large attendance of the members and friends of the association is expected at Monday evening's meeting. The fathers and mothers are especially invited to come and enjoy this social meeting.

A Mail Carrier's Load.

Seems heavier when he has a weak back and kidney trouble. Fred Duehren, Mail Carrier at Atchison, Kas., says: "I have been bothered with kidney and bladder trouble and had a severe pain across my back. Whenever I carried a heavy load of mail, my kidney trouble increased. Some time ago, I started taking Foley's Kidney Pills and since taking them I have gotten entirely rid of all my kidney trouble and am as sound now as ever." Sold by C. M. Parrish.

Footwear Extravagance.

You cannot economize on your fee this season when they are so much in evidence, and, therefore every woman will have to take up the two subjects together—the kind of suit she buys and the kind of shoes she will get to go with the suit.

COMPETITIVE BALLOT.

some one in your district appears to have a greater number of votes than you have. Be determined, don't let false rumors have any influence over you, and your turn to lead will soon come.

Perhaps your friends have not as quickly caught the spirit of the affair as have the friends of the other candidates, but they will if you persist, and when they do, your score will shoot skyward, too. Perhaps you have not asked your friends to help you. If not, do so at once. Do not be afraid to ask for votes and subscriptions.

SHOW YOUR INTEREST.

Show your friends that you are thoroughly interested and intend to win, and they will help you get busy and pull your score up among the leaders.

Be a leader in your division if you possibly can. The prestige such a position gives you arouses the interest of those who are watching your progress. Once you get your friends interested in your welfare there is no ending of surprising developments. Your friends will win the auto for you if you impress on them just what a delightful pleasure this means to you.

Don't hesitate to call the Contest Manager for any information desired.

WEAK, WEARY WOMEN

Learn the Cause of Daily Woes and and End Them.

When the back aches and throbs
When housework is torture
When night brings no rest nor sleep.
When urinary disorders set in
Women's lot is a weary one.
There is a way to escape these woes.
Doan's Kidney Pills cure such ills
Have cured women here in Bellefonte.
This is one Bellefonte woman's testimony.

Mrs. John Andress, 245 S. Spring St., Bellefonte, Pa., says: "I willingly confirm the public statement I gave in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills two years ago, after they had benefited me so greatly. I procured this remedy at Green's Pharmacy Co., when suffering from backache and severe pains in my loins and its use brought prompt and permanent relief. Another member of my family also took Doan's Kidney Pills and was cured of kidney trouble."

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION No. 1

SHALL SECTION EIGHT OF ARTICLE NINE OF THE CONSTITUTION BE AMENDED SO AS TO READ AS FOLLOWS?

Section 8. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which now exceeds seven per centum of such assessed valuation, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum, in the aggregate, at any one time, upon such valuation, except that any debt or debts hereinafter incurred by the city and county of Philadelphia for the construction and development of subways for transit purposes, or for the construction of wharves and docks, or the reclamation of land to be used in the construction of a system of wharves and docks, as public improvements, owned or to be owned by said city and county of Philadelphia, and which shall yield to the city and county of Philadelphia current net revenue in excess of the interest on said debt or debts and of the annual installments necessary for the cancellation of said debt or debts, may be excluded in ascertaining the power of the city and county of Philadelphia to become otherwise indebted: Provided, That a sinking fund for their cancellation shall be established and maintained.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION No. 2

SHALL SECTION SIX OF ARTICLE FIVE OF THE CONSTITUTION BE AMENDED SO AS TO READ AS FOLLOWS?

Section 6. In the county of Philadelphia all the jurisdiction and powers now vested in the district courts and courts of common pleas, subject to such changes as may be made by this Constitution or by law, shall be in Philadelphia vested in five distinct and separate courts of equal and co-ordinate jurisdiction, composed of three judges each. The said courts in Philadelphia shall be designated respectively as the court of common pleas number one, number two, number three, number four, and number five, but the number of said courts may be by law increased, from time to time, and shall be in like manner designated by successive numbers. The number of judges in any of said courts, or in any county where the establishment of an additional court may be authorized by law, may be increased, from time to time, and whenever such increase shall amount in the whole to three, such three judges shall compose a distinct and separate court as aforesaid, which shall be numbered as aforesaid. In Philadelphia all suits shall be instituted in the said courts of common pleas without designating the number of the said court, and the several courts shall distribute and apportion the business among them in such manner as shall be provided by rules of court, and each court, to which any suit shall be thus assigned, shall have exclusive jurisdiction thereof, subject to change of venue, as shall be provided by law.

In the county of Allegheny all the jurisdiction and powers now vested in the several numbered courts of common pleas shall be vested in one court of common pleas, composed of all the judges in commission in said courts. Such jurisdiction and powers shall extend to all proceedings at law and in equity which shall have been instituted in the several numbered courts, and shall be subject to such changes as may be made by law, and subject to change of venue as provided by law. The president judge of said court shall be selected as provided by law. The number of judges in said court may be by law increased from time to time. This amendment shall take effect on the first day of January succeeding its adoption.

IT IS HUMAN; THAT'S IT.

Why Critics All Praise "The Prodigal Judge"—The Best Novel of Year.

The Pittsburg Dispatch is to be congratulated on securing the right to publish "The Prodigal Judge," as a serial. It is one of the few novels that every one likes to read. "The Prodigal Judge" is the sort the men enjoy all as well as the women. Here are just a few extracts from what some of the critics say about it. Read them and you want to read the novel, too. They say, "It is one of the most fascinating, human and original novels that an American author has turned out in many a long year."

"It is a companionable book."

"It is a novel truly American."

"It is a book of redemption."

"One where justice takes its inevitable course."

"A book where mercy opens the road to regeneration."

"A book rich with the ripest humor."

"A Story of dramatic thrills of stirring and laughable scenes."

Read this great story now that you have the opportunity. The opening chapters were published in The Pittsburg Dispatch on Wednesday November 1. Tell your newsdealer to get it for you, And tell your friends to read it. It is a great novel.

Out of the Ginger Jar.

Most rat holes will bear looking into.

Isn't the lover who braves the storm a rain-beau?

It doesn't require an axe to cut an acquaintance.

Corn no the cob is more acceptable than corn on the foot.

There is no impropriety in using a spring wagon in the fall.

It isn't very long before the "good fellow" is a poor fellow.

Women are vain, but men are much more so and with less reason.

Many a man is in great fear that he will get all that is coming to him.

We notice that most people who are consumed by curiosity still survive.

If our mistakes teach us nothing it were hardly worth while to make them.

A horse is not of any use until it is broken, but it is different with a plow.

Though we may never have lost any, most of us are looking for money all the same.

A hen will spend a whole day getting up an egg that a hungry man can eat in a minute.

Here is a good question for lyceums to discuss this winter: "How much is enough?"

When you buy a balky horse you may not pay for any harness, but you will be sure get a halter.

The wise man does not let his wife hear him boast that he is good manager; she knows better.

Don't wait for success to come in your yard. Grab it by the collar and yank it inside the gate.

Stranger: "Can you direct me to a bank?" Villager: "Sorry, sir; but I'm not a bank director."

He was an ambitious youth, the simple life was not for him. He was determined to go upon the stage. His persistence won the day. He now drives the stage between Upham's Corners and Newton Center.

If you would have light dumplings, leave the cover off for about ten minutes after you have put them in.

"People who do not like the country because there is so little going on, are those in whose heads there is less going on than even in the country.",

Mix your griddle-cakes, waffles, fritters, etc., in the upper part of a double boiler in stead of in an ordinary mixing bowl, and you will find the handle very useful to hold it by when frying them.

When you buy the children's drawers for the winter, sew a piece of tape, about three inches long, across the bottom of the legs. This will prevent the drawers from wrinkling up when the stockings are put on.

Do not forget to give the baby plenty of water. Milk is a food, and does not take the place of water as a drink. Plenty of water between feeding, taken either warm or cool, is a great aid to the bowels and kidneys.

Nut butter is a pretty good substitute for meat now that the latter brings such high prices. Run walnuts or shellbarks through a food-chopper, and rub into them about one-third as much good fresh butter. Spread on crackers or bread.

One housekeeper has prevented many a burned roast of overbaked cake by setting the alarm clock to the proper time to open the oven door. Then she goes about her work in the other parts of the house, knowing that she will hear the imperative call at the right time.

The right way to cook oatmeal: Put a teaspoonful of salt in a quart of water over the fire, in the upper part of a double boiler. As soon as it boils briskly put the oatmeal in slowly. Do not stir, but let it boil briskly for a few minutes, then set it in the lower half of the boiler, which should contain hot water; cover it and let in bubble slowly, without stirring, for four or five hours at the least. If wanted for breakfast it should be cooked the day before, and then finshed with as much time as you can allow in the morning.—Farm Journal.

"Clean Slate" Habit.

Are you one of the girls who are given to moping, to looking fearfully into the future, or to lamenting the past? There is no surer cure for these unhappiness breeders than to cultivate the clean slate habit.

What is it.

Live a day at a time. Start each morning with a fresh record to be made. This must not be muddled with the blurs of yesterday nor the possible blots of tomorrow.

The girl who gets the clean slate habit, realizing the value of living but a day at a time, determines to make that day as bright and helpful as she can. She seeks to write upon it only pleasant things, says the Chicago Tribune. If the disagreeable ones must go down she looks forward to the morrow, when they can be rubbed out, though perhaps they must be rewritten.

The girl with the clean slate habit does not force early wrinkles by dread of the morrow. She takes all the fun of the present until it becomes a habit—such a strong habit that even the worries as they come fail to blur the slate.

Try it just for one day. Begin this morning to rub out of your recollection the things you failed to do and the things you may fail in doing. Determine, until you go to bed to-night, to live for the next thing as well and as cheerfully as you can.

If a day spent is not entirely as you would spend it, at least the average of happiness is higher than if you passed the hours in vain regrets and vainer forebodings until no strength is left for sane living.

Turkeys Roost on Train.

That turkeys are plentiful and not shy and that trains are sometimes slow in Maryland was demonstrated at Keymar, Md., several days ago, when the south-bound passenger train leaving York over the Frederick division at 8 a. m., arrived at that station. There was much shifting and a long wait there, and in the course of it all two plump turkeys emerged from a barnyard near the tracks, spread their flashing bronze wings in graceful ascent and were soon calmly perched on the roof of the day coach, much to the amusement of passengers. The conductor of the train came in for a great deal of "kidding" from the passengers in regard to the slowness of a train that serves as a roost for barnyard fowls along the way. The conductor in defending himself against the many good natured jibes, declared that he was not responsible for defects of schedule. The turkeys remained perched on the roof of the day coach after the train had resumed its journey and finally took flight, alighting in a field contiguous to the railroad.

A Household Medicine.

What stops coughs quickly and cures colds is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Mrs. Anna Pelzer, 2526 Jefferson St., So. Omaha, Neb., says: "I can recommend Foley's Honey and Tar Compound as a sure cure for coughs and colds. It cured my daughter of a bad cold and my neighbor, Mrs. Benson, cured herself and her whole family with Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Everyone in our neighborhood speaks highly of it." Sold by C. A Mail Carrier's Load.

Seems heavier when he has a weak back and kidney trouble. Fred Duehren, Mail Carrier at Atchison, Kas., says: "I have been bothered with kidney and bladder trouble and had a severe pain across my back. Whenever I carried a heavy load of mail, my kidney trouble increased. Some time ago, I started taking Foley's Kidney Pills and since taking them I have gotten entirely rid of all my kidney trouble and am as sound now as ever." Sold by C. M. Parrish.

Divinity Fudge.

Boil together two cups sugar, one-half cup of corn syrup, one-half cup water and a teaspoon flavoring. Cook to a soft ball, then pour into the beaten whites of two eggs. Beat again at once and add one cup chopped walnuts. When stiff enough drop with a spoon on buttered plates.

For coughing, dryness and tickling in the throat, hoarseness and all coughs and colds, take Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Contains no opiates. Sold by C. M. Parrish.

Sparks and the Odor.

Every boy who has struck flints together to make sparks knows the typical odor that arises from the clash. He also knows that the whiter the flints the more smell they emit. This phenomenon has been observed for centuries, but scientific men have been at a loss to account for it. Many explanations have been given, but experiment has proved all of these to be erroneous. Recently, however, two Italian scientists, the brothers Piccardi, demonstrated that the smell of spark emitting flints is due solely to the minute quantities of organic matter that are upon the stone and that are burned by the sparks. This organic matter need be in only the most minute quantity, such as may be left by water in which lichens, weeds or water plants have decomposed, for the olfactory nerves are so exquisitely sensitive that they can detect the burning of almost infinitesimal bits of matter. The delicacy of these nerves is proved by the fact that even after the pebbles have been washed in lye the smell of burning can still be detected. But if the pebbles be heated in fire and then struck together at points that the hands have not touched there is absolutely no odor at all.—New York World.

Insects That Imitate Ostriches.

The habit of the ostrich of burying its head and imagining that it has eluded discovery is copied after a fashion by certain insects, according to Dr. G. Rodman in his lectures on the subject of the stick insect, or bacillus rossi, which he has cultivated. These insects, which are so called because of their resemblance to dry sticks, have two fore legs which they fold completely over their eyes when disturbed and evidently think that in so doing they themselves are lost to view. The eggs of these insects, Dr. Rodman says, take something over six months to hatch. They are only one-tenth of an inch in their longest diameter, and by some miracle an insect which at hatching is three-quarters of an inch in length is packed into them. The stick insects destroy the weaklings of their number by eating their legs.—Westminster Gazette.

A Whack at Turtle Soup.

Turtle soup is called green just because turtle fat is "kinder that color." And believe it, whether you now do or not, turtle soup will make anybody sweat green who eats of it often and much. Hogarth has a picture showing how green turtle soup and its fellow foods and drinkables in the good old golden days put London aldermen under the tables. From the viewpoint of nourishment turtle soup is not worth a tenth it costs. Sun dried turtles are found in some of the markets of the world, and many chefs say they are about as good as the fresh reptile. As for the true secret of mock turtle soup, it is only the scalp of a sucking calf, a gelatinous fraud, masquerading as a chunk of green turtle shell fat, but even so, it is better than the best genuine sea turtle soup at that.—New York Press.

A Floor That Turns Over.

The floor in the Apollo theater in Paris is reversible, one side being made for dancing, the other being the usual inclined floor equipped with the folding seats of a theater auditorium. The floor is mounted on a horizontal axis on which it revolves. It is built on a framework of steel girders, has an area of 2,500 square feet and weighs 100 tons. The axis, which is parallel to the front of the stage, is not in the middle of the thickness of the floor, but nearer to the seating surface than to the dancing surface. The floor swings through an excavation over thirty feet in depth.—Cement Age.

Here and There.

Have you read Green's Tooth Powder offer ?

Mrs. C. M. Bower is enjoying a visit with friends in Clearfield.

Miss Minnie Grenoble is visiting her parents at Woodward, expecting to be gone about one week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Haag and daughter, Mildred, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Haag's parents, at LaJose.

Miss Sarah Caldwell left on Thursday for Baltimore, Maryland, where she is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Philip McGinley.

Mrs. James Noonan, of this place, was in Corning, N. Y., on Saturday attending the funeral of the late John Millville.

Mrs. Golden, of State College, was in town between trains on Saturday, enroute to Pittsburg where she will visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Hill went to New York on Monday to see the big world's naval review on the Hudson river. They expect to return home today.

Miss Jennie Zimmerman, who has been in Atlantic City for the last year, arrived in Bellefonte on Thursday of last week and is visiting at her home on Lamb Street.

John Furst was an arrival in Bellefonte this week for a little visit with his mother, Mrs. A. O. Furst, timing his arrival here to be on hand for the opening of the hunting season.

Mr. and Mrs. James Schofield gave a party on Tuesday evening for their granddaughter, Elizabeth Larimer, the clever little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Larimer. About thirty children were present.

Professor John Smithgall, who was in Austin at the time of the big flood but who since has spent some time with Mrs. Smithgall and the children here, on Monday returned to Austin, where he supervised the reopening of the public schools.

Miss Anne Blanchard, of Chicago, who recently returned from a trip abroad, is visiting with Mrs. E. M. Blanchard, on Linn Street, as is also her sister, Miss Christine Blanchard, who was in Lock Haven looking after the Dr. George D. Green home while Mrs. Green was away.

On Saturday, next, the Bellefonte Academy football eleven will play the State College Reserves at State College. This game will be preliminary to the game between the State varsity football eleven and the St. Bonaventure eleven. One admission ticket will be good for both games.

On account of the football game and cider scrap at State College on Saturday, November 4, the Bellefonte Centre Railroad will sell round trip excrusion tickets on trains leaving Bellefonte at 10.15 a. m. and 2 p. m., for one fare for the round trip, returning by special train leaving State College at 6 p. m.

The First District Quarterly meeting of the Free Methodist church, Tyrone District, will be held in the Forge church, Bellefonte, Nov. 9 to 12. All the preachers of the District, with a number of visiting members, expect to be present. The public is cordially invited by A. J. Hill, District Elder, and Samuel Stimer, pastor.

The Bellefonte Academy on Saturday defeated the Lock Haven Normal football eleven, 25—0, the game being played on Hughes field, The Lock Haven boys put up a good game but were outclassed. On the same afternoon the Bellefonte High School eleven went down to Lock Haven, where they easily defeated the Lock Haven Reserves, 23—0.

At 3 o'clock on Friday afternoon, November 3, the bazaar to be held in the Parish House of St. John's Episcopal church, will be opened and will continue Friday evening and Saturday, from 3 o'clock p. m., until 10 o'clock p. m. Beautiful fancy goods, aprons, dolls, etc., suitable for Christmas gifts, will be for sale, also home-made cakes, ice cream and candy. At the delicatessen booth there will be many dainties to tempt the appetite. Bring the children with you, for the Grab Bag is all ready.

Quite a few flittings have taken place in the last few days and a number of others are scheduled for the next few weeks. Captain H. H. Montgomery moved from his Bishop Street residence to the house until recently occupied by the McGarvey family, on East High Street. The McGarveys moved into the house on Bishop Street vacated last week by Mrs. C. D. Tanner, who now occupies the Dr. W. W. Heidt residence, on High Street, and where she will continue to conduct a splendid boarding house. Sheriff Hurley, when he retires from office at the end of the year, expects to move into one of the Hayes houses nearby the Bellefonte Academy.

Lewis Daggett, Hassell Montgomery, Hugh Crider and Harry Green were among those from Bellefonte who went down to Philadelphia last Saturday to see State College wipe up the field with the University of Pennsylvania football eleven. State walked away with the game to the tune of 22—6 and on Monday night the great victory was celebrated in glorious style at the college. Five hundred Freshmen hauled the bus containing the victorious team from Lemont to the college and on Monday evening a monster bonfire topped off the celebration. State played a wonderful game against Penn and every friend and admirer of the college is justly proud of the feat.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Club will be held at Petriken Hall on Saturday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock. The officers desire to state that this will be the last meeting before the election and that all members are urged to be present and to bring with them any persons who would be interested in putting two women on the School Board. The officers of the club also express the hope that from now on the members and their friends will be untiring in their work in electing Mrs. Brouse and Mrs. Gilmour. As a final campaign effort they emphasize their argument that "more than one-half the benefit will be lost unless we can elect two women, both of whom are candidates for the 2-years terms." Mrs. Brouse is on both Republican and Democratic tickets and her election is thus assured. Mrs. Gilmour is on the Republican ticket only Licorice "Ju-Jus" for hoarseness, 5c. a package—at Green's.

Miss Sarah Shuey gave a large Hallow'een party this week in honor of the graduating class of the Bellefonte High School.

John Wian, a brother of Longer Wian, of this place, was found dead in bed in Harrisburg on Tuesday night. His remains will be brought to Bellefonte tonight for interment here tomorrow.

Mrs. F. H. Thomas and daughter, Miss Margaret Thomas, are in Philadelphia this week. Mrs. Thomas will remain but a day or two, but Miss Margaret will visit for a week or ten days with friends in Norristown.

Tirrell Tuten, the bright little son of Register and Mrs. Earle C. Tuten had a party on Monday evening, from five to seven. Ten little folks, all in masquerade costume, were there to enjoy the good time. They were Mollie Shugert, Louise and Margaret Taylor, Louise Barnhart, May Crider, William Keller, Isabel and Gerald Davis, Mary Taylor and Tirrell Tuten, the gallant little host.

Word was received in Bellefonte on Monday of the death of William Kirby, at Frappe, Maryland, who had been in ill health for some time. He was the husband of Miss Margaret Sechler, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hammon Sechler, of this place. Mr. and Mrs. Sechler and Miss Anna Sechler attended the funeral, which was held at Frappe, on Wednesday afternoon. Surviving Mr. Kirby are a widow and one son.

Contractor R. B. Taylor is this week filling in and grading the sidewalk along Spring Street, at the rear of the New High School Building grounds. A new underground drain was recently laid along the sidewalk. It is proposed laying a concrete sidewalk between Linn and Lamb Streets, but this will not be put down until next Spring. For the present the sidewalk will be filled in and brought up to grade and then covered with a light dressing of crushed limestone.

A delightful Hallow'een party was given at the home of Miss Bertha Dietrich, on Bishop Street, last Friday evening. All in attendance had a most enjoyable time. During the evening there was music on the piano and violin and delicious refreshments were served. Those present included Freda Reynolds, Boyd Hazel, Beulah Woods, Blanche Hoy, Wilbur Dunkle, Inez Cronemiller, Marie Moffet, Alma Dietrich, Edith Houser, E. J. Philips, Lola Ulrich, Clare Reynolds, P. E. Smith, Carl Dietrich, Millard Hartswick and Mary Dietrich.

Turkey Maidens Now Flirt.

"The maidens of Turkey have learned to make American goo-goo eyes—they have learned to flirt like an American belle or a Paris girl."

So said Sidkey Bey, discussing the new regime in Turkey. He was formerly second secretary to the Turkish Embassy at Washington, afterward Acting Consul General in New York. Sidkey Bey is in Los Angeles, Cal., with his wife, handsome and talented, who had the distinction of being the only woman dwelling in the Turkish Embassy. He went on:

"In the old days a woman in Turkey couldn't flirt, because her glances were wasted on the wrong side of the veil. Now she can use her eyes to advantage, and she knows it. The Turk knows it too, and is glad she does not wear the veil.

"Under the old regime a lover never saw his bride until after the ceremony was over and the wedding feast done. Then he lifted her veil with some misgiving in his heart, for he had married the woman of his mother's judgment.

"In these days the American courtship is carried on in Turkey. The young man calls at the girl's house, and even goes so far as to take her out for a walk just like the American or Englishman. Then he pops the question, and if she accepts they are eventually married, if some other fellow does not come along whom the girl might like better."

"My child was burned terribly about the face, neck and chest. I applied Dr. Thomas' Electic Oil. The pain ceased and the child sank into a restful sleep." —Mrs. Nancy M. Hanson, Hamburg, N. Y.

PRETTY CHURCH WEDDING

Miss Grace M. Blackford Becomes Bride of Sydney A. Keifer.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was that at 11 o'clock today, in the Methodist Episcopal church, when Miss Grace M. Blackford, one of Bellefontes most popular young ladies, was led to the altar by Sydney A. Keifer, local superintendent for the American Lime & Stone Company. The ceremony was quite elaborate and was witnessed by a large number of friends of the contracting parties. Rev. Dr. E. H. Yocum, pastor of the church, officiated.

The bride, who was given to be married by her brother, J. Linn Blackford, was handsomely dressed in cream messaline, trimmed with embroidered silk and ball trimming. She wore a train and carried white roses. Her bridesmaid, Mis Daisy Keichline, of Bellefonte, was dressed in pale blue chiffon cloth, trimmed in ecru lace which she brought with her from Italy. She wore a picture hat of pale blue and carried yellow chrysanthemums. The groom was attended by his nephew, Edward Riley, of Altoona. The ushers were Van Jodon, Wilbur H. Burkholder, Harry Williams and Alfred Klepfer.

Following the ceremony at the church a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Blackford, on Bishop Street. The honeymoon tour includes a trip to Philadelphia and New York, a trip up the Hudson and a visit of one week with the groom's brother, at Lancaster. On their return to Bellefonte Mr. and Mrs. Keifer will occupy apartments at Mrs. C. D. Tanner's. Testifying to the high esteem in which the bride and groom are held by a host of loyal and admiring friends was the large number of handsome wedding gifts received. A gift from the American Lime & Stone Company was a mahogany clock and a mahogany chest of silver. The men at the Armor gap quarries presented a solid mahogany chair, richly upholstered in leather. The firm of Joseph & Company, by whom the bride was employed for a number of years, presented a large Wilton rug. There were also numerous gifts of silver and cut glass.

WEDDINGS AT STATE

Misses Margaret Krebs and Esther Campbell Brides of Former Students.

There were two pretty weddings at State College on Tuesday, and in each instance the groom was a former student and graduate of the college. At 10 o'clock in the morning Miss Margaret Goss Krebs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Krebs, became the bride of Professor Harvey M. VanGorder, of Toronto, Canada. The ceremony was performed in the Lutheran church, with Rev. Mr. Sasserman officiating and with about thirty guests in attendance.

At 1 o'clock in the afternoon Miss Esther Nora Campbell was married at the home of her sister, Mrs. H. D. Meek, to Professor Donald Smith Devor, of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Rev. McK. Riley officiating. The bridesmaids were Miss Daisy Keichline, of Bellefonte, and Miss Georgie McMurray, while the best man was Jenner Devor, of Chambersburg, a brother of the groom. Upward of seventy guests were in attendance.

Two Men of Sterling Worth.

C. H. GRAMLEY.

Two men of sterling worth, Clement H. Gramley and W. H. Goss, have been nominated by the Republicans for County Auditors. Both are clean, honest, conservative men and both are well qualified to audit your county books. Your vote for these two men insures for you an honest, careful, intelligent audit of the public accounts.

Mr. Gramley is a resident of Rebersburg. His friends are legion and all are deeply interested in his success at the polls. Mr. Goss is a resident of Pine Grove Mills. He is a grand old man and stands high in the estimation of his neighbors and friends. Like Mr. Gramley, his word is as good as his bond. A true, blue Republican, he wants to be elected and he also wants to see the entire Republican ticket triumph on Tuesday.
